Department of Justice and Constitutional Development: LLB / Law Internships 2025/26 New Application

Description

We are seeking dedicated and passionate LLB (Bachelor of Laws) graduates or current law students to join our internship program. This internship offers an invaluable opportunity to gain practical experience, expand legal knowledge, and contribute to the pursuit of justice and the enhancement of constitutional development.

Responsibilities

- Legal Research: Conducting in-depth legal research on various cases, statutes, and legal precedents.
- Assistance in Court Proceedings: Providing support to legal professionals in court proceedings, including document preparation and case analysis.
- Drafting Legal Documents: Assisting in the preparation and drafting of legal documents, memos, briefs, and reports.
- Client Support: Offering assistance to clients, conducting interviews, and providing legal advice under supervision.
- Administrative Tasks: Assisting with administrative duties within the department as required.

Qualifications

- Pursuing or completed an LLB degree from a recognized institution.
- Strong academic record and a keen interest in the legal field.
- Excellent research, analytical, and problem-solving skills.
- Proficiency in legal writing and communication.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively within a team.
- Ethical conduct and respect for confidentiality.

Job Benefits

- Hands-on experience in a governmental legal environment.
- Mentorship and guidance from experienced legal professionals.
- Exposure to diverse legal matters and cases.
- Potential networking opportunities within the legal field.
- Stipend or remuneration as per departmental guidelines.

Contacts

Interested candidates should submit a comprehensive CV, a cover letter explaining their interest in the internship, academic transcripts, and any relevant certificates or references. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for interviews.

Join us in contributing to the promotion of justice, safeguarding constitutional principles, and making a meaningful impact within the legal landscape of South Africa.
