Department of Women: Internships (2026 / 2027) New Application

Description

We are seeking passionate and driven interns to join our Department of Women team. This internship program offers an exciting opportunity for individuals interested in contributing to meaningful initiatives, gaining practical experience, and supporting our mission to create a more inclusive and equitable society.

Responsibilities

- Research and Analysis: Conduct research on issues related to women's empowerment, youth development, and the rights of persons with disabilities. Analyze data, policies, and programs to support evidence-based decision-making.
- Support Initiatives: Assist in the planning, coordination, and implementation of projects and programs aimed at promoting gender equality, youth participation, and inclusivity for persons with disabilities.
- Outreach and Communication: Contribute to the development of communication materials, including social media content, newsletters, and reports. Assist in organizing events, workshops, and campaigns to raise awareness and advocate for relevant causes.
- Administrative Support: Provide administrative assistance, including but not limited to scheduling meetings, maintaining databases, preparing presentations, and organizing documentation.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a relevant undergraduate or graduate program (e.g., Gender Studies, Social Sciences, International Development, Public Policy, etc.)
- Strong passion for and commitment to advancing gender equality, youth empowerment, and the rights of persons with disabilities.
- Excellent research, analytical, and communication skills.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a team environment.
- Proficiency in MS Office Suite and familiarity with research tools and databases is advantageous.

Job Benefits

- Opportunity to work alongside experts and professionals in the field.
- Hands-on experience in contributing to impactful initiatives and projects.
- Networking opportunities and exposure to various facets of policy-making and implementation.
- Potential for professional growth and mentorship within the department.
