

DOJ Internships (2025 / 2026) New Application

Description

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (DOJ) offers internship opportunities for motivated individuals seeking practical experience in the field of law and justice. As a DOJ Intern, you will have the opportunity to work alongside experienced professionals and contribute to the department's mission of promoting a just and equitable society.

Responsibilities

- Legal Research and Analysis: Conduct research on legal issues, legislation, case law, and constitutional matters. Analyze findings and provide recommendations for legal proceedings and policy development.
- Case Support: Assist in the preparation of legal documents, including drafting pleadings, briefs, and legal opinions. Review and summarize case files, conduct factual investigations, and gather evidence.
- Courtroom Observations: Attend court proceedings to gain practical exposure to legal proceedings, including trials, hearings, and motions. Take notes and prepare reports on observed cases.
- Administrative Support: Provide assistance with administrative tasks such as organizing and maintaining case files, scheduling meetings, preparing agendas, and handling correspondence.
- Legal Compliance: Assist in monitoring compliance with relevant laws, regulations, and policies. Identify areas of non-compliance and propose measures to rectify or mitigate risks.
- Policy Development: Contribute to the development of policies and guidelines related to justice and constitutional matters. Research best practices, draft policy documents, and participate in policy discussions and consultations.
- Collaboration and Communication: Collaborate with team members and stakeholders within the DOJ and external organizations. Communicate effectively through oral and written means, including preparing reports, memos, and presentations.
