FEM: YES Internships 2025/26 Apply Online

Description

FEM is seeking passionate and driven interns to join our team through our FEM: YES (Youth Empowerment and Support) Internship program. This internship provides an excellent opportunity for individuals who are enthusiastic about women's empowerment, social justice, and community development to gain hands-on experience and contribute to meaningful projects.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the development and implementation of programs and initiatives aimed at empowering young women and girls.
- Conduct research on relevant topics related to gender equality, women's rights, and empowerment.
- Support in organizing events, workshops, and campaigns focused on raising awareness and advocating for gender equality.
- Collaborate with team members to create engaging content for social media platforms, newsletters, and other communication channels.
- Provide administrative support as needed, including data entry, scheduling, and correspondence.

Qualifications

- Passion for women's empowerment and gender equality.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Strong organizational abilities and attention to detail.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office suite and familiarity with social media platforms.
- Previous experience in advocacy, community organizing, or related fields is a plus.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience in the nonprofit sector and women's empowerment initiatives.
- Opportunity to network with professionals and activists in the field.
- Flexible schedule and remote work option.
- Mentorship and professional development opportunities.
- Make a meaningful impact on the lives of women and girls worldwide.

Contacts

To apply, please submit your resume and a cover letter outlining your interest in women's empowerment and why you are interested in interning with FEM. Additionally, please include any relevant experience or skills that make you a strong candidate for this position.
